PETITIONING THE COURT

On May 8, 2019, the U.S. Probation Office in the Middle District of Pennsylvania was notified that the defendant, who was under courtesy supervision in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, due to his residence in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, had submitted to several drug screens which yielded positive urinalysis results. Specifically, the defendant had tested positive as follows: Cocaine on April 2, 2019; opiates and cocaine on April 30, 2019; and opiates and cocaine on May 8, 2019. The defendant, after initially denying use on each occasion, admitted to using the substances in question. The Middle District of Pennsylvania notified the sentencing court of the violations, and it was agreed that no violative action would be taken, and the defendant would remain in substance abuse treatment in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. The Middle District of Pennsylvania also advised that they would initiate a transfer of jurisdiction, and the undersigned officer agreed.

Subsequently, the defendant was discharged from substance abuse treatment on June 7, 2019, after he signed a "no miss" contract and failed to appear for several sessions. He also tested positive for methamphetamine, cocaine, and opiates on June 26, 2019. He initially denied using any controlled substances, but later admitted to usage. On July 2, 2019, the defendant was presented with a waiver for a modification to include placement in a Residential Reentry Center (RRC) for a period of 120 days, with the conditions that he attend mental health and substance abuse counseling while at the RRC. The defendant signed the waiver and agreed to the proposed modification. A copy of the signed waiver has been attached. The United States Attorney's Office has advised that they have no objection to the proposed modification.
